CULTURE COMES LAST

Be a gift to the economy

BY DG TERRY WEAVER

October is Economic and Community Development Month on the Rotary calendar. That reminds us of Vocational Service, Rotary's second avenue of service and perhaps the least understood. It's explained in the Second Object of Rotary:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society.

In our daily occupations we're serving our community in various ways -- providing jobs and economic opportunity, while also being examples of high ethical standards to our employees, coworkers, customers and suppliers.

In your club, I'm asking you to consider a project specifically focused on Vocational Service. District Vocational Service Chair Kris Atwood Kris@AtwoodCabinetry.com is available to help you create a Vocational Service opportunity if you don't have one already in place.

The 2015-16 Presidential Citation provides one idea, and a relatively easy one, at that:

Have at least three club members mentor a Rotaractor or Interactor.

Other options include things like Shadowing Days, Career Roundtables between High School students and Rotarians, Science Fairs, "Classification Talks", where members give an overview of their business or profession, or a project applying your members' vocational skills.

Vocational Service is an important foundation of Rotary—the idea that we serve our communities through our own professions is a differentiator of Rotary, and an area where we can Be a Gift to the World. Contact Vocational Service Chair Kris Atwood Kris@AtwoodCabinetry.com if you need help in creating a Vocational Service project.

CULTURE COMES LAST

BY DG TERRY WEAVER

Every organization owns a culture, whether they like it or not. Your workplace owns a culture. Your family owns a culture and yes, your Rotary club owns a culture, too.

I once sat down with a small business client's Board of Directors and said, "You have established a company culture of non-performance and complacency." They didn't fire me, but rather asked, "How could we change that?"

HOW DO YOU CHANGE A CULTURE?

If, for example, your Rotary club owns a culture of membership decline, what would you do if you'd like it to own a membership growth culture? Hint: You wouldn't focus on the culture itself. That doesn't work.

WHAT WORKS?

Activity. Changing an organizational culture is like changing a personal habit. You have to choose a new activity, then practice that activity for awhile (personally, about 30 days, organizationally for at least 6 months). So the way you change your Rotary club's culture is by creating intentional, repeatable strategies and practicing them regularly.

THEN WHAT?

Measure not only the results but also the activities you've chosen. Are they being executed? Often enough? Well enough? And of course, are they getting the results you intended?

New activities that get better results quickly reshape the culture. After regularly executing some activities that bring in new members, a club that was convinced that it's OK to steadily lose membership realizes, after awhile, that it's a whole lot more fun and a whole lot easier to be growing, and a membership growth culture develops. How do you know when you're there? Someone resigns or membership takes a temporary dip and members rally to find a replacement -- without being asked or prompted.

VISUALIZATION

Then the next step in cultural change sets in— Visualization. When a club starts to visualize itself as vibrant and growing, it will become vibrant and growing. Celebrate the small wins along the way to affirm your progress.

GIVE THIS A TRY.

Define the new activities you think it will take to change a cultural aspect of your club.

Practice them for at least 6 months.

Measure not only the results but also the activities themselves.

You'll like the new culture you've created.

Your club will soon be receiving a Club Preparation Guide for the conference. The first step in that process is to identify an All Club Conference Advocate (chair) for your club. This point person will receive ongoing information on the event from the Conference Committee and promote it as an event from which all Rotarians, spouses and guests will benefit—personally, professionally, and as a community service volunteer

PREPARE FOR ALL CLUB CONFERENCE

The event formerly known as District Conference has been redesigned, refocused and rebranded. Going forward, this event will be known as:

All Club Conference

for District 7750 Rotarians

This event will be both a meaningful Rotary experience and a meaningful life experience for members, spouses and guests

COMPLETELY REVAMPED

Get ready for some valuable content—outstanding speakers, inspiring accomplishments of our own clubs, and ideas you can use to improve your club, your community and your life. Yes, your life, too. We'll have nationally-known speakers and breakout sessions on topics such as work/life balance, getting more personally out of your Rotary investment, transitioning from success to significance in your life, and how to visualize, set and achieve your life's goals. And, of course, how to help your club be more successful in community awareness, service projects, fundraising and more.

Program: Club Recognition and Awards for 2014-2015 Rotary Foundation support, recognition of new Major Donors, Paul Harris Fellows, Paul Harris Society Members, Benefactors and Bequest Society Members. Update on the Governor's 10+1 Challenge and Polio Eradication.

Register Now This event is a great opportunity for you to engage with Rotarians outside your own club. There will be an upbeat and inspirational message from Mike McGovern, International Polio-Plus chair, celebrating more than 1 year since the last case of live polio virus in Nigeria.

Can't attend? Use the Register Now link to buy a "virtual meal" — a $40 contribution to PolioPlus (provides 66 polio vaccinations), using the money you saved by not attending. Many of those attending are also buying a "Virtual Meal" in addition to their own.

Rotarians and spouses, join us for an interesting and inspirational evening. This event will expand Rotarians' understanding of how the Rotary Foundation helps us Be a Gift to the World.

Keynote Speaker: Rotary Foundation Trustee Mike McGovern, a past RI vice president and director, Permanent Fund National Advisor, and recipient of one of the Foundation's highest honors, the Citation for Meritorious Service.

WHO Removes Nigeria from Polio Endemic List Only two countries remain endemic to this paralyzing disease

The World Health Organization announced Sept. 25 that Nigeria is no longer polio endemic. This is the first time that Nigeria has interrupted transmission of wild poliovirus, bringing the country and the African region closer than ever to being certified polio-free.

The Global Polio Eradication Initiative (GPEI), the public-private partnership leading the effort to eradicate polio, called this a 'historic achievement' in global health. Nigeria has not reported a case of wild poliovirus since 24 July 2014, and all laboratory data have confirmed a full 12 months have passed without any new cases.

As recently as 2012, Nigeria accounted for more than half of all polio cases worldwide. Since then, a concerted effort by all levels of government, civil society, religious leaders and tens of thousands of dedicated health workers have resulted in Nigeria successfully stopping polio. More than 200,000 volunteers across the country repeatedly immunized more than 45 million children under the age of five years, to ensure that no child would suffer from this paralyzing disease. Innovative approaches, such as increased community involvement and the establishment of Emergency Operations Centres at the national and state level, have also been pivotal to Nigeria's success.

The interruption of wild poliovirus transmission in Nigeria would have been impossible without the support and commitment of donors and development partners. Their continued support, along with continued domestic funding from Nigeria, will be essential to keep Nigeria and the entire region polio-free.

Polio, which can cause lifelong paralysis, has now been stopped nearly everywhere in the world following a 25-year concerted international effort. Polio remains endemic in only two countries – Pakistan and Afghanistan. The eradication of polio globally now depends primarily on stopping the disease in these countries. As long as polio exists anywhere, it's a threat to children everywhere.

District-wide fundraiser for polio

BY AMELIA NELSON
D7750 POLIO CHAIR

Our Nov. 6 Foundation Banquet and Seminar event is also our district-wide fundraiser for polio. You can help by donating to the World's Greatest Meal (WGM). The goal for WGM to Help End Polio is $4.25 million.

GLOBALLY: As of September 11, a total of $4,020,265.41 with matching funds from the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation has been donated. This translates to enough funds to buy more than 6,700,000 polio vaccinations!!

LOCALLY: Can YOU not give up one night of dining out to help with this virtual meal to end Polio? A donation of $40 will supply vaccines for 66 children!

How can you help? If you have not yet registered for the Foundation event, you can add your WGM donation to your registration (found in DaCdb).

If you are already registered, you can still go to Registration and enter your WGM donation.

Or, you can give a check in any amount to your Club Treasurer marked for Polio-WGM.

Rotarian and Union Daily Times Editor Charles Warner spoke about the many assets in and around downtown Union. The Union Daily Times is owned by Civitas Media. To read more about Union news, please visit their website: www.uniondailytimes.com

Union's new Rotarian Louis Miller spoke to our club about his life and some projects going on at the Episcopal Church of the Nativity to refresh South Church Street. Even though Louis is new to our club, he has been a Rotarian for 30 years! (Pictured: Rotarians Charles "Buddy" Smith and Louis Miller)

Rotarian Scott Sandor spoke to the club about the Union County YMCA updated pool operation guidelines, the increased swim level test, the various programs they are offering right now, and their new Virtual Fitness Class.

Rotarian Tal Wilkins introduced Capt. Robert Hines to the club. The Union County Sheriff's Office Uniform Patrol Division is under the supervision of Capt. Hines. He spoke to the club about church safety and "Protecting Your Flock". Prevention starts with preparation. (Pictured: Rotary President Ben Loftis and Capt. Robert Hines.)

Caroline Avinger - Rotarian Annie Smith introduced Caroline Avinger to the club. Caroline is the president of Protocol, which provides training and private coaching in corporate communications and business etiquette. She is certified as a corporate etiquette and international protocol consultant as well as a protocol officer by The Protocol School of Washington. You may contact her at cbavinger@protocolsc.com for more information about her classes.

Rotary eClub of the Carolinas begins monthly ROTARY ROUNDUP to orient new (and old) members

BY JAMES M. DODMEAD

An eClub meets differently than a “terra” club and needs to find new ways to keep the membership engaged and provide new member orientation. This is particularly important with new Rotarians and experienced Rotarians who are not accustomed to the eClub environment. The eClub of the Carolinas has announced a new approach to ensuring interaction between new, seasoned, and retreat members. The eClub has called this its “Rotary Roundup”.

On the third Wednesday of each month from 5:30-6:30 PM, the eClub is hosting a Rotary Roundup to provide a structured Rotary meeting for their geographically diverse members using the video conferencing resources of www.zoom.us.

The “Rotary Roundup” Committee members, Alberto Meloncelli and Dianne Clarke-Kudless, will be co-hosting the event and discussing Rotary related topics such as Rotary Orientation, club leadership discussions, eClub involvement, District Leadership messages, Rotary Leadership Institute, and charities such as Polio Plus, CART, and the Rotary Foundation.

There will be special time for new members to share their business affiliations and explore their service interests. Roundup members Cori Hill Heymann and MC Yarbrough will contact each member individually to encourage them to attend the Roundup. Cori and MC are new members themselves. What a great way to meet them and for them to meet our internationally diverse membership.

Attendees will receive attendance credit for this meeting and guests are welcome. For more information contact Dianne Clarke-Kudless at enterpriseservices@att.net.

Oyster Roast in Clemson

The Rotary Club of Clemson will sponsor its 7th Annual Oyster Roast on Oct. 16. It will be held at Tiger Park before the Boston College football game. You can enjoy barbecue, live music and steamed oysters. This is a photo from last year's event that more than 400 people attended.

Tickets are $40. Contact Wright Henry, 864-506-3961 or Martin Sarkees, 864-986-1790 to get yours.

There is a NEW Rotary Logo!

BY BRAD MAJORS, bpmajors@gmail.com
D7750 PUBLIC IMAGE CHAIR

Actually, it is two years old but many clubs in District 7750 are still using the old blue and gold wheel logo. The old “wheel” logo should no longer be used. We don't expect you to throw away apparel that has the old logo but please DO NOT PRINT ANY MATERIALS WITH THE OLD LOGO.

Feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Here is the new logo. It can be found easily at BRAND CENTER, <https://brand-center.rotary.org>. You can see it used throughout this newsletter with club names. At Brand Center, you can easily create your own club logo as well as brochures and presentations, all that meet current Rotary branding guidelines.

Results good for first year of renewed Rotary-Greenville Literacy partnership

BY VINCIE C. ALBRITTON

On October 23, 2014, presidents from the Rotary Clubs of Greenville, Greenville Breakfast, Greenville Evening, and Simpsonville witnessed the renewal of a long, successful relationship with the Greenville Literacy Association (GLA) by signing a three year memorandum of understanding.

In doing so, the Greenville Literacy Partnership recognized the value of the commitment made by the GLA in serving the 53,000 plus residents in Greenville County without a high school diploma or equivalent GED.

The signing members each made financial commitments to fund programs, materials, and scholarships for the next three years. In addition, the membership of two other clubs, the Rotary Club of Greater Greer and the Rotary Club of Mauldin, made personal commitments to fund scholarships and provide other support to GLA.

On August 20, 2015, GLA hosted the Club Presidents and Literacy Chairs to report on the first year impact of the Partnership. The first year grants allowed GLA to upgrade one classroom with the purchase and installation of an interactive whiteboard, install a communication board in the main lobby of the McAlister Square Main Office enabling communication of important information, events, and dates to donors, students, tutors, and staff, and provide eight scholarships to deserving students to take and pass the newly implemented GED.

Carol Browning, Executive Director, shared the story of one GED candidate who by virtue of passing his GED was able to apply for a new position and increase his wages and earnings threefold.

This personal testament is at the heart of the Partnership and its continued commitment to GLA and to Greenville County. In its second year the Partnership is growing with the addition of the Rotary Club of Greenville East. The second year dollars committed by the Partnership, along with a match received from a District 7750 Grant, will allow GLA to invest in materials and infrastructure that will reach many more Greenville citizens in need of their service. A great start for a partnership renewed.

Ruby Slipper Event

The Rotary Club of Greenville Evening attended the Habitat for Humanity “Ruby Slipper Event” at the TD Convention Center on September 14, 2015. The club has been supporting Habitat for Humanity for many years by participating in home builds for the local Greenville community. For the past two years, Habitat has donated a children’s playhouse as second prize for the Reedy River Duck Derby. This year, the club was invited to assist with the building of the playhouse, and as an added bonus, the winner donated the playhouse to a school for students with behavioral health challenges where it is now being lovingly used by small children waiting placement by DSS.

The club was proud to support Habitat for Humanity of Greenville County by attending this event and values our ongoing relationship with this humanitarian organization. —Candy Surkin

Shriners Hospital visit and naming contest

The Rotary Club of Greenville Evening visited Shriners Hospitals for Children on September 17. Along with members of the club, the hospital hosted the club’s mascot who visited children and evoked smiles and shy waves from many of the patients.

Earlier this year patients at the clinic participated in a contest to name the club’s mascot, a large yellow duck who wears a cool pair of sunglasses. The winner was 3-year-old Brantley Marion who named the duck “Shades.”

The newly-christened Shades is the centerpiece of the club’s flagship fundraiser for the year, The Reedy River Duck Derby. The Derby, held on the first Saturday of May each year, raises money for charitable organizations in the greater Greenville area through sponsorship of rubber ducks who “race” over the falls in the heart of downtown.

With generous donations from local business partnerships and individual sponsors, charitable dollars are funneled into the community to combat homelessness, poverty and provide opportunities for children with disabilities. The Rotary Club of Greenville Evening looks forward to this and other community-strengthening events every year.—Jessica St. Clair Smith

JDRF One Walk

The Rotary Club of Greenville Evening participated in the annual JDRF One Walk on Saturday, Sept. 19 at the BMW Performance Center in Greer, SC. Many of the members of the club came out to support this cause in memory of a former club member, Kevin Dill, who died earlier this year. Kevin was an avid supporter of the JDRF One Walk. The club raised $2,040 towards the local JDRF One Walk goal of $223,685. The focus of the JDRF One Walk is simply one goal; and that is to Create a World without Type 1 diabetes. Each year, the JDRF One Walk brings together over 900,000 people who help to raise over $68 million towards research for type 1 diabetes research. The Greenville Evening Rotary Club is proud to support such a worthy cause.—Pamela Lyda

World Polio Day — Live-stream event is Oct. 23

Rotary's annual World Polio Day kickoff event is Oct. 23 in New York City. We'll use this occasion to shine a light on Rotary's leadership in the fight that has brought us This Close to ending polio.

The Livestream event, co-sponsored by UNICEF, will bring together our partners in the Global Polio Eradication Initiative, government officials, and global health leaders from nongovernmental organizations and will mobilize more than 30,000 supporters.

July and August brought great milestones in the polio eradication effort. For the first time in history, Nigeria—then all of Africa—marked one year with no new polio cases caused by the wild virus.

As we protect the progress made in Africa, we focus even more sharply on Afghanistan and Pakistan.

World Polio Day is our opportunity to update participants around the world on our progress and next steps and inspire them to share their voices, donate, or advocate for eradication as we near the finish line.

We invite you to join us and watch the event live, starting at 6:30 Eastern. (A recording will also be made available.) We also ask you to raise awareness of our polio eradication effort in your own community and build a local audience for our World Polio Day event. Visit the End Polio Now website to download resources that can help you raise awareness and funds. Share this information with your Rotary clubs, districts, communities, and elected officials.

WHY?

Rotary Youth Exchange

The most powerful force in the promotion of international understanding and peace is exposure to different cultures. The world becomes a smaller, friendlier place when we learn that all people — regardless of nationality — desire the same basic things: a safe, comfortable environment that allows for a rich and satisfying life for our children and ourselves. Youth Exchange provides thousands of young people with the opportunity to meet people from other lands and to experience their cultures. This plants the seeds for a lifetime of international understanding.

Find out how your club can participate in this peace initiative — even if you are not sponsoring or hosting a student.

For more information on the Rotary Youth Exchange Program, contact Jack Newby at 864-972-0913 or 864-280-5484. Email: YouthExchange@Rotary7750.org.
