Friends,

Welcome to the 2023 Rotary District 7750 All Club Conference. I'm so glad you are here. Mingle with old friends and make new ones. Help others by participating in a service project. Party on the patio. Smile at the Pet Photo Slideshow. Admire the displays in the House of Friendship. Pause to fondly remember those we have lost this year. Our general session will pique your imagination as we hear from club leaders and motivating speakers. Feel the energy rise as we share ideas for doing good in the world. Be touched by the stories and moved by the compassion which guides us to help others. You will go home ready to finish the year strong and inspired to try new things. While you are here, please enjoy the comfort of gracious lodging, superb meeting spaces, and delicious dining...all located in the heart of a city offering history, culture and fun. Take advantage of exciting venues during free time and after-hours...adventure is waiting for you nearby. I hope you have a wonderful experience as together we watch the magic of Rotary grow.

Wishing you all the very best,

District Governor Joyce Morin

► MITCH NORRELL

Past President, Lancaster RC

Proud graduate of Duke University and Vanderbilt University School of Law. Mitch has always believed that his greatest strength is in his ability to connect with people, and that his calling is to use his knowledge and experience to represent people in a small town atmosphere. He has been practicing law since 1989, and has extensive experience in Serious Injury and Wrongful Death litigation, as well as Social Security Disability and Family Law. He is a Certified Mediator for both Family Court and Circuit Court. Mitch is a Lancaster SC lawyer who brings a rare combination of a top notch education and common sense to a small and personalized law firm environment.

Mitch is married to Many Powers Norrell and they have two wonderful children.

► GREG ADELINE

Greg Adeline is a two-time Emmy Award winning anchor and reporter who brings nearly two decades of broadcasting experience to the WIS anchor desk. Greg joined WIS in 2017 from its sister station in New Orleans, WVUE, where he was a morning anchor and reporter. His prior broadcasting stops included Kansas City and Lansing Michigan. He counts himself blessed to call the Midlands home!

In the years since Greg arrived in Columbia, he has received numerous awards., including eight Emmy nominations, winning two Emmy Awards in 2018 and 2019. He was also honored with the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences "Excellence in My Market Award" in 2020 as the "Best Live Reporter". In 2021, Greg and his co-anchor were named "TV News Anchor Team of the Year" from the RTDNA of the Carolinas. That same year, Greg was named "TV Personality of the Year" in South Carolina, an award given by the South Carolina Broadcasters Association. Greg has covered the major stories that have impacted the Midlands in his tenure -- everything from hurricanes to election coverage, COVID-19, to protests. He also tells heartwarming feature stories and has a passion for writing and storytelling, on air and online. You can follow Greg on Facebook at Greg Adeline WIS. A handful of his posts on life and faith have reached over 1 million people each. Greg's first big break in TV news came in May of 2004, when the NBC affiliate in Detroit offered him a three-month on-air reporting job. Greg was selected from a pool of 300 candidates and won the job through a two-week audition process that played out on live TV! Greg and his wife Kristen are the proud parents of four young kids. So accordingly, he enjoys telling some "groan-worthy" Dad Jokes.

► MONIQUE GARVIN

Monique Patton Garvin, LMSW, MPA is a native of Greenville, South Carolina. She earned her B.A in Political Science with a minor in Professional Writing from Winthrop University in 2014. Monique received dual Master degrees in Public Administration and Social Work from University of South Carolina in 2019. Monique is the Deputy Director of the Violence Against Women Act and Human Trafficking Programs at the South Carolina Attorney General's Office and a mental health therapist for children and families. She has nearly a decade of professional experience in education, policymaking, program development, and research, with an emphasis on the effects of trauma and abuse across the lifespan.

► ALAN WILSON

Alan Wilson is now serving his fourth term as South Carolina's Attorney General after being re-elected in November 2022. He has also served in the National Guard for more than 25 years, including a combat tour in Iraq, achieving the rank of Colonel. As Attorney General, he has focused on fighting human trafficking, with a report in 2019 ranking our state best in the nation for improving its human trafficking laws and last year's report showing continued improvement in fighting that crime.
