

Conference Workshop choices for Saturday morning

Are My Club Members Rotary Happy? - Jenny Stotts

Join Jenny Stotts for a fun-filled, high-energy, high-impact session on building strong, resilient Rotary clubs through responsive, meaningful member engagement. You'll learn practical tips and strategies to energize your membership and grow your club. In this session, you'll probably laugh; you'll likely roll your eyes; and you'll definitely be Rotary Happy.

Jenny Stotts is a dynamic and energizing speaker and trainer. She works hard to deliver a practical and salient message every single time. She is a licensed social worker with more than 10 years of experience in the child welfare and juvenile justice field. She holds a bachelor's degree in social work and psychology and masters degrees in strategic social sciences. She is a trained trauma specialist and has previously worked as a forensic interviewer. She is skilled in assessment and intervention of crisis.

How to Make Your Fundraising a Win-WIN! - Bob Howard

Description: Bob will share some ideas on how to make your fundraising work for you and help both your donors and your club.

Bob Howard is a member of the Greenville Rotary Club and the former Chair of the Greenville Tech Foundation. Before that, he was Executive Director of the Greenville Symphony. He also served as the Senior vice president at Bank of America and worked there for 31 years.

Hearing and being Heard – Clemson Turregano

Dr. Clemson G. Turregano is the Founder and CEO of Global Leadership Services, an international firm specializing in executive education and leadership development services. He shares his expertise in global senior leadership roles in Belgium, India, Saudi Arabia and South Africa. He holds the position of Senior Fellow at Furman University's Center for Innovative Leadership. Clemson has been a Rotarian for almost two decades. He shares his insights and knowledge as a sought-after speaker for Rotary leadership training. With a passion for cultivating effective leaders on a global scale, Clemson G. Turregano continues to focus on enabling leaders to accomplish more than they ever thought possible.

Service is What We Do!

Several clubs will share outstanding service projects and fundraisers, with handouts on implementing them in your clubs. Several pages of Possible Service Projects will be available.