Be Gift to the World | Give the Gift of Literacy

BY DG TERRY WEAVER

September is Basic Education and Literacy month on the Rotary calendar. One of Rotary's 6 Areas of Focus, it's especially relevant in our state, where 25% of our population cannot read the newspaper (5th grade reading level). We are in a target-rich environment for real Rotary-style hands-on service projects that change people's lives forever. That's a Gift to the World!

Illiteracy has both a personal and public cost. Incarceration, homelessness, teen pregnancy, poor health and poverty are all likely outcomes for an individual who is unable to read. This means more community services, more facilities, and more dollars needed to combat the symptoms, not treat the problem.

I urge you to do a needs assessment in your community and offer your members an opportunity to serve in literacy projects in your area.

Literacy projects are the ultimate in sustainability. Teaching someone to read or helping someone get a GED changes a life forever. There's no "maintenance" or ongoing time or expense involved.

Your District Literacy Resource Chair Vincie Albritton (valbrit@clemson.edu) is your go-to person for help with assessing needs and creating projects. You don't have to create a project from scratch - just connect with the right group or organization.

We have a unique opportunity in South Carolina to make a significant impact on the lives of others through this Area of Focus. Explore a new literacy project this month, or step up your impact by expanding one and Be a Gift to your community and to the World. Contact District Literacy Resource Chair Vincie Albritton (valbrit@clemson.edu) for help.

Look on page 3 for some specific suggestions on how your club can improve literacy in 7750.

Rita figured out how to get MC into Rotary

BY DG TERRY WEAVER

"You just can't hold volunteers accountable."

What?? I've actually heard that statement, an idea that just blows my mind. If that were indeed true, volunteer organizations would never get anything accomplished.

Think about it—if your neighbor calls and says, "Let's play tennis at 7 am tomorrow," and you say "Yes,", are you not accountable to be there? You don't work for him, and he's not paying you, right? People of good character are, in fact, fully accountable to anyone and everyone they make commitments to. And, if it becomes impossible to deliver, they're accountable to say so as soon as they realize that, or to find someone else who will deliver for them.

Since we, even as volunteers, are, in fact, accountable to do what we say we'll do, as are those we surround ourselves with, how do we ensure that those you're counting on for help stick to what they committed to?

FIRST

Clearly establish the Vision:

What are we trying to do?

What does success look like?

SECOND

Identify people that you can count on to help lead and execute part of the vision. A lot has been accomplished by extraordinary people doing extraordinary things. There aren't a lot of those. Break the work down into parts that ordinary human beings doing ordinary things can accomplish. "Many hands make light work."

THIRD

For each of those, lay out your expectations in writing. Use a format something like the Volunteer Expectations Template:

Vision -- What is the Committee expected to accomplish?

Strategies -- What strategies/actions are the Committee expected to execute?

Metrics -- How will we measure success?

Support -- What resources (people, money, etc.) are available to help?

Simply stated, "Here's what I need from you. Here's what you can expect from me."

FOURTH

Sit down face to face with the person you expect to be accountable, and make the "ASK":

"How does this role sound to you?"

"Is this something you can get passionate about?"

"Can you see yourself leading this for me?"

"Can I count on you to lead this part of my team?"

FIFTH

"You can expect what you inspect." Ask for a written Committee Plan. Check in regularly with those you're counting on to execute. Ask them for progress updates. Sit in on a committee meeting occasionally. If they stumble, ask them "What's getting in the way?", and help eliminate those roadblocks. Plan your follow-ups and progress updates so there's plenty of time to regroup and reboot if the original plan isn't working.

Bottom line? As Yoda said in The Empire Strikes Back, "Do. Or do not. There is no try." If you call up your neighbor to play tennis at 7 am tomorrow, and he says, "I'll try", what do you do? Call another neighbor.

Accountability isn't tied to compensation. Whether you're paying someone or not, if you've made your expectations clear and asked "Can I count on you?", it's fair to expect them to come through, find someone else who will, or give you a timely heads up if something comes up that prevents them from doing so.

SUGGESTIONS TO IMPROVE LITERACY IN D7750

FROM DG TERRY WEAVER

- 110 H D G 12 H H H T T T T T T T T T T T T T T T T
Engaging with your county's adult literacy agency	Tutoring is a hugely rewarding experience that hundreds of Rotarians have been doing in South Carolina for over a decade. Organize a group of Rotarians to get trained and get engaged. If your county literacy agency's Executive Director isn't a Rotarian, ask him or her to join.
Tutoring GED students	Same as above, just a different audience and a broader range of topics. Reading, writing, math, science, etc. (Partner with local libraries, churches, and literacy associations).
Financial Literacy	FDIC produces a completely packaged financial education program called "Money Smart." Help people who have never had a checking account or any kind of credit to understand basic household finance. The Greenville club does this with GED students, many of whom are single moms a vulnerable segment of our society.
Classroom Reading	Branded "Rotary Readers" or "Read to Me" by some clubs, Rotarians actually read to kids at school in disadvantaged areas. A program nearing 20 years old in D-7750, there are Rotarians who wouldn't miss their reading dates. They love it. Inspiring kids to read at early ages eliminates the #1 cause of school dropouts reading deficiencies.
Dictionary Projects	Many clubs in D-7750 provide dictionaries for 3rd graders in their club territories. Of course, a 4-Way Test sticker with a club logo inside the front over furthers their brand recognition.
Speak with your existing partner organizations.	They may have a literacy component to their mission. (e.g. Little Steps, Greenville helps teen mothers and fathers learn life skills to be good parents. They have a program to teach these young parents the value of reading to their children)

ATTENDANCE THE ELEPHANT IN ROTARY'S LIVING ROOM

BY TERRY WEAVER

I've encountered a widespread misperception that I'm told is getting in the way of membership growth.

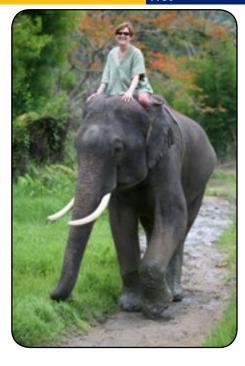

The elephant in the living room? ATTENDANCE.

Let's step back. Several years ago, the Council on Legislation (Rotary's governing body) declared almost ANY legitimate Rotary activity as a makeup. This includes not only attending another club's meeting, but also a committee meeting, working on a project (some clubs say for at least 1 or 2 hours), a Board meeting, etc. Etc. means anything that can reasonably be called a Rotary service activity. Now, of course to get "credit" for a makeup, the member has to report that qualifying activity to the club secretary. Most clubs use a sign-in sheet at a committee meeting or project and then forward the whole list to the secretary.

Why did the COL do that? Because the point of tracking attendance is not to make people come to meetings. When measured this way, it's a measure of engagement -- a Key Performance Indicator (KPI) of how your Rotary club is doing at involving members in Rotary activities. Believe me, we have the data to prove that when a member isn't engaged and involved in the club, it's a short trip to a resignation letter. Look at your members' attendance percentages. Those at the bottom of the list are thinking about resigning. What can you do to get them engaged, involved, and hopefully passionate about something the club is doing?

More importantly, tracking engagement (attendance is a surrogate) is an important way of ensuring that members get the return on their Rotary investment they deserve. Members who don't show up for club activities aren't getting the benefit of Rotary, and if we can identify those folks early, we can intervene and get them involved in something they're interested in.

So, let's not only treat attendance as a KPI for engagement, but let's explain it the same way to prospects.

Rather than "You have to attend 4 meetings a month", say, "We expect you to participate in some Rotary activity 4 times a month -- you pick the activity that works for you, and you pick the time." I think that's a whole different message, and actually what we're attempting to promote and measure. It's not about making people come to meetings. It's about offering them a platform where they, in their own ways and based on their own preferences, can Be a Gift to the World.

This event is a great opportunity for you to increase your return on your Rotary investment by engaging with Rotarians outside your own club. This will be an upbeat and inspirational message from Mike McGovern, International PolioPlus chair, celebrating more than 1 year since the last case of live polio virus in Nigeria.

Can't attend? Use the Register Now link to buy a "virtual meal" — a $40 contribution to PolioPlus (provides 66 polio vaccinations), using the money you saved by not attending. Many of those attending are also buying a "Virtual Meal" in addition to their own.

Rotarians and spouses, join us for an interesting and inspirational evening. This event will expand Rotarians' understanding of how the Rotary Foundation helps us Be a Gift to the World.

Eight Rotarians added to New Member Sponsor Recognition Program

BY DGE LANCE YOUNG

It is my pleasure as the Membership Chair of D-7750 to extend my personal thanks and congratulation to the following individuals for achieving gold-level sponsorship of bringing in 6 new members or more to their clubs. Thank you for your extra effort and for setting the gold standard!

Michael Emily, E-Club, 2014 PDG Loraine Angelino, Emerald City, 2015 Judith Prince, Greenville, 2014 PDG Myles Golden, Greenville, 2015 Elizabeth Lyons, Greenville, 2014 Ann Golden, Greenville Evening, 2015 Garret Strader, Indian Land, 2015 John F. Penny, Spartanburg, 2015

These names will join other Rotarians who have also achieved the gold level on the New Member Sponsors gallery on the Rotary International website. Also, members who get to this level and higher and who are in attendance at the Rotary International Convention will be invited to join the RI President for a special recognition event.

The new Member Sponsor Recognition Program is a new initiative approved by the Rotary International Board of Directors. It honors Rotary members who sponsor new members. There are four levels of achievement. For 1 new member you receive a blue color backer for your Rotary pin. For 2-3 new members you receive a bronze color backer, 4-5 new members a silver color backer and for 6+ new members you receive a gold color backer for you Rotary pin. The gold-level sponsors will also have special recognition at the Rotary International Convention.

DG Terry and I want to encourage you to bring in new prospective members so they can see all that your club is doing in your community as well as what Rotary is globally. You will find that these prospective members will want to join a group that is making a positive difference in the world. Our goal this year in D-7750 is 100 new members. We can do it!

Exchange Students from Greenville & Italy begin school year

BY WENDY GREEN, ROTARY CLUB OF GREENVILLE EVENING

Allison Moore and Benedetta Serra are embarking on an adventure as Exchange Students hosted by the Greenville Evening Rotary Club.

Benedetta arrived in the US on Tuesday, August 11, from Genova, Italy. She learned about the Rotary Youth Exchange program from a friend who was supposed to attend last year, but had to cancel at the last minute due to illness. She will be attending school as a high school junior and she said that she is most excited about meeting new people, learning about the American culture and learning to speak and understand English better. She also wants this year to be fun.

One of the highlights for this year that Benedetta looks forward to is a trip out west with other Youth Exchange students. For the Serra family, Benedetta's year abroad continues a tradition that was started by her older sister, who spent a year studying in New Zealand while in high school.

Allison, a junior at Greenville High School, will be leaving to join her host family in Italy on Aug. 31. Allison is going to a small village near the Mediterranean Coast called Caniparola. Allison learned about the Rotary Youth Exchange program from a friend who hosted an exchange student. She had always wanted to travel abroad and saw this as her opportunity to do that.

Allison started studying Italian just a couple of months ago, so she is looking forward to becoming more fluent in the language, exploring small towns near her village and traveling throughout Europe during school breaks. She plans to blog about her experience and share that blog with friends and family.

Both girls completed a lengthy application process for the Youth Exchange and learned where they would be going last April. Since then it has been a process of preparing for their year abroad.

The Greenville Evening Rotary Club met both students at their meeting on Aug. 11. The members of the club will be getting know Benedetta throughout this school year and look forward to hearing from Allison upon her return, as well as following her adventures on her blog.

Rotarian Torance Inman spoke to the club last week about the economic growth in Union and how over 90+ businesses are here now that weren't in Union 10 years ago. The Chamber will host Music Month Downtown Union on September 3, 17, and 24 this year!

Rotarian Mayor Thompson introduced Katherine Pendergrass to the club. Katherine is the Center Manager at SC Works in Union. She spoke about the variety of assistance that is available for job seekers and employers at SC Works.

Rotarian Lisa Morris introduced Derek Riccelli to the club. Derek is a Nationally Certified Financial Educator and is the Product Manager for Park Sterling Bank. He taught us about 'Sterling At Work' and the 360 personal financial management they offer!

Coleman receives PHF at Emerald City. Read why.

Steve Coleman, director of Project Genesis at Piedmont Technical College, has been recognized as a Paul Harris Fellow by the Emerald City Rotary Club.

"I'm appreciative for this award because it is your peers recognizing you," said Steve. "It was given to me based on me simply doing what I felt was right and what is necessary for the community."

Steve was given this recognition due in part to a contribution from Lorraine Angelino, Assistant Regional Rotary Foundation Coordinator.

"When Steve came and spoke on the Genesis Program and the work he was doing, I felt that he was doing an excellent job helping out with a community issue," Lorraine said.

The Project Genesis initiative focuses on recruiting, retaining and graduating African American male students in the associate in arts, criminal justice, computer technology, industrial electronics technology and heating, ventilation and air conditioning technology programs. These programs were chosen because of demand in the job market, and good earning potential.

"Too many of our African American men are struggling, so our goal is to work with our target population to make sure 100 percent them graduate and continue on to pursue a bachelor's degree or a rewarding career," said Steve. "Our challenge is to instill that desire to graduate into these men. Our passion is useless if they don't want to do it for themselves.

District 7750 make contributions to Greenville County Habitat for Humanity and Partners in Agriculture's Haiti efforts

s a result of a successful Luau Benefit event on the Friday evening of our 2014-15 District Conference held in May of this year, our Rotary District was able to provide financial contributions to the two charities targeted by the event.

PDG Tom Faulkner visited the Greenville County Habitat for Humanity offices and presented Rotarian and Habitat Executive Director Monroe Free with a check for $2,600. These funds are to be used to help pay for the expenses incurred in completing the 330th Habitat home being built in Abigail Springs in Taylors, South Carolina. This home adopted by our Rotary District is being built in the 30th anniversary year of the Greenville County Habitat chapter.

Tom also had the privilege of presenting an identical contribution to Charles Warne, a fellow Rotarian and a principal of Partners in Agriculture, an NGO supporting the creation and development of the LaFontant Vocational Center in Corporant, Haiti.

These two contributions are symbolic of the work of our Rotary District both in our local communities and throughout the world. Keep up the great work, Rotarians!!

Spartanburg district grant brings water to Peru

Since 2010, the Rotary Club of Spartanburg sponsors water filtration systems and skill development in the village of Santa Clara, Peru.

Adjacent to the Amazon River, Santa Clara has received 167 filtration systems for homes, the medical clinic, churches and school.

In 2015, the Rotary Club of Spartanburg received a $1,500 District grant for ceramic filters to be used in Santa Clara.

The Rotary Club of Spartanburg's Board has approved additional funds to provide stipends to send more Rotarians to Santa Clara in 2016. This effort will increase water filtration within the community and replace dated equipment.

Greatest Meal

Help End Poli

SAVE 66 CHILDREN FROM POLIO— REGISTER NOW for World's Greatest Meal

BY AMELIA NELSON D7750 POLIO CHAIR

First, IMPORTANT polio news update—from reports by International President Ravi and Board of Trustees Chair Ray—we are now down to only two endemic countries...Afghanistan and Pakistan. Other great news – there have only been 36 cases so far this year and our battle to end polio worldwide is on track for 2018.

But to do this, we must continue to fund this humanitarian project and keep it as our Number 1 district Rotary project. We must also keep this goal in the media, informing our clubs (especially newer members), local communities, and more importantly, our governmental leaders so they do not lose interest in supporting Rotary and it's partnerships with UNICEF, CDC, WHO and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, to name a few.

And HOW do we do this? Communication, communication, communication. Be proud Rotarians. Let everyone know that Rotarians worldwide have raised in excess of $1 billion to accomplish this task – in addition to sending volunteers to administer the vaccine through our NID (National Immunization Day) trips and through publicizing projects for National Polio Day in October.

District 7750 is in Zone 33 and we had over a 12% gain in total polio giving last year finishing 6th in the world in club and district contributions. But, Zone 33, consisting of 15 districts and 800 clubs, had a goal of EVERY club having a polio goal and ALL clubs contributing something to polio. WE DID NOT ACHIEVE OUR GOAL of $1,000 average per club.

Although it is early in the year, we cannot expect EVERY club to have contributed to polio by mid-August, but we are expected to have an activity or project to raise funds for polio for World Polio Day.

Therefore, I am asking that you, as individual Rotarians, participate in our district project: the World's Greatest Meal (WGM). You can do this in several ways. When you register for the Foundation Banquet and Awards & Seminars event on November 6, you can add your donation of $40 to the registration form. If you are not attending the event, you can still donate your $40 through the registration form. OR, you may give $40 to your club's Foundation Chair earmarked the WGM. To realize how much impact your $40 will make, you will provide immunization for 66 children in the remaining endemic countries. What an impact you will make saving lives! Register NOW.

Leave a legacy to our Rotary Foundation

BY DGN ED IRICK DISTRICT ENDOWMENT CHAIR

It is my intent to periodically provide you information on the various means of planned giving to the Rotary Foundation. This is the first in a series of articles from RI designed to inform you of charitable estate and financial planning that will allow you to make a legacy gift to Rotary International.

A SIMPLE WAY TO MAKE A LEGACY GIFT

Life insurance can be a great way to make a generous gift to charity. Many people have policies that are no longer needed to provide for loved ones. They may not think of these policies as assets available for charitable giving. What could be simpler than naming The Rotary Foundation as the beneficiary of an insurance policy? Encourage Rotarians you know to consider turning an unneeded policy into a gift that helps secure the future of The Rotary Foundation.

THE ABC'S OF INSURANCE GIFTS TO ROTARY

Like most charities, Rotary has a Gift Acceptance Policy that covers insurance gifts. Here is a summary for your quick and easy reference:

- Anyone can name The Rotary Foundation as the beneficiary of any life insurance policy, at any age, for any amount. The gift might not qualify for recognition or tax benefits, but the proceeds will ultimately support the many important activities of the Foundation, such as clean water or peace studies.
- To be recognized as a Benefactor or Bequest Society membership a person can name The Rotary Foundation as a primary beneficiary of an insurance policy other than a term life policy. Due to the short-term nature of term policies and the uncertainty of contingencies, Rotary does not provide Benefactor or Bequest Society recognition for term or contingent policies.
- TRF does not actively promote the purchase of new insurance policies for the purpose of making a gift to Rotary, however, TRF staff are available anytime to discuss the donor's objectives.

I hope you found this information informative. Please let me know if you are interested and I will put you in contact with the RI person who can answer your questions help you make this happen.
