'I've had a great life, and I'm still having it'

Lancaster Rotarians salute Buddy Hungerford for 70 years of 'Service Above Self'

Excerpted from The Lancaster News

The Rotary Club of Lancaster had the rare opportunity to celebrate the service and commitment of a 70-year Rotarian.

And S.R. "Buddy" Hungerford III still expects to give more years to Rotary. "Service is my main thing," he said.

Buddy celebrated his 92nd birthday the week after the Nov. 2 Rotary event held in his honor. He still drives himself to the weekly meetings. Despite the age-earned stoop, he stands erect when saluting the flag, addressing the audience and accepting awards.

DG Ed Irick presented Buddy with a plaque engraved with words of gratitude and merit.

"It is a complete honor to present you this plaque in recognition of 70 years of faithful allegiance to the ideals of Rotary," Ed said.

Buddy and Deanna Hungerford show off the plaque marking his 70 years of Rotary service.

Buddy, with his wife, Deanna, by his side, was taken by surprise. He didn't know the event was planned for him. After nearly a minute of applause, he spoke. "I want to thank all of you," he said, "You are all my friends. It's been a pleasure being a member with you."

This was the second recognition Buddy received in the past year. Rep. Mick Mulvaney

This photo of a much younger Buddy appeared in a Tunica, Miss., Rotary Club publication from 1954.

(now Director of the Office of Management and Budget in Washington, DC) presented the World War II veteran with the Bronze Star.

"He always has something to say, and most likely it will make you laugh or at the least put a smile on your face. Always. And when he tells a story... you listen. He is full of great stories and life lessons."—Lancaster Rotarian Susan Rowell

Lancaster Rotary Club secretary-treasurer Regina Maxfield gives Buddy Hungerford a kiss at the ceremony recognizing him for 70 years of Rotary service.

BUDDY'S ROTARY PHILOSOPHY

Buddy strives to abide by the Rotary philosophy.

He seemed pleased this week with the shiny plaque and praise from his fellow Rotarians. His wife said they will hang the plaque in Buddy's corner with his WWII medals and photographs.

He no doubt shared this latest award when he made that weekly phone call to his daughter, Cheryl Harrison, 70, who lives in St. Louis.

Just before leaving the meeting, Buddy talked about his world travels, his family, especially his wife, and his life in general. "I've had a good life, a great life, and I'm still having it," he said.

Buddy ended with a little Rotarian philosophy: "The Rotary four-way test asks: 'Is it true? Is it fair to all concerned? Will it build goodwill and better friendships? Will it be beneficial to all concerned?'" "I think if you follow these four tenets and put service above self, you will be going to heaven."

Buddy Hungerford, 70 years in Rotary—

Buddy's life of service began in 1944 when he was drafted into the Army at 18. After recovering from battle wounds suffered in Germany, he returned home to Tunica, Miss., looking for a way to serve in the civilian world. He joined the local Rotary club there in 1946 when he was 21. The club elected him president five years later.

He worked for his family's furniture business until he retired in the mid-1980s and moved to Naples, Fla. After a couple of decades in the Sunshine State, he and his wife relocated to Lancaster, and before a year had passed, Hungerford was back in Rotary. He was a young 89.

No one can recall anyone with a longer tenure in Rotary, according to Regina Maxfield, club treasurer, who checked with national Rotary officials about it. He might be the longest-serving Rotarian ever, they said, but it can't be proven because of inconsistencies in past records.

However, one thing is for sure – everyone loves Buddy. The proof is the hugs, smiles and brightened eyes of anyone in his presence. Judging by the line that formed to give him a hug – or a kiss from the ladies – he is probably the most loved Rotarian in town. Buddy is thankful for the high regard others have for him. "I appreciate that," he said. "Everybody is good to me, so I might as well be good and spare a little time for them."

When I joined the club, Buddy was one of the first members to invite me to sit with his group for lunch. Each year he remembers my birthday and gives me a card and a box of candy."

Strengthen Rotary membership

Rotary's new year resolutions

by John Kimbell

Rotary E-Club of the Carolinas
D7750 Membership Chair
jkimbell46@gmail.com

As we begin a new calendar year, it is traditional that some resolutions are made. Now is a time to consider and act on your personal resolution to enhance your Rotary experience. You can greatly help your club grow and be stronger. Consider these:

- I will have more fun in Rotary enjoying friendships and service.
- I will proudly wear my Rotary pin every day prompting many fruitful conversations about our impact locally and globally as well as membership.
- I will bring guests to Rotary that I know personally and would make a great Rotarian.
- I will chat with fellow Rotarians I don't know to expand my circle of friends in my Rotary club.
- I will explore if a committee or role needs my personal service and can help the club.

When you make, and keep, these resolutions, you will enjoy being a Rotarian even more in 2018.

It can be very helpful to reflect on the core values that makes Rotary strong as we look to the future. We know these, but it is useful to review and keep top on mind as we share the Rotary story.

OBJECT OF ROTARY:

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO:

Is it the TRUTH?

Is it FAIR to all concerned?

Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

AVENUES OF SERVICE:

Our commitment to service at home and abroad is through five Avenues of Service, which are the foundation of club activity:

Club Service focuses on making clubs strong. A thriving club is anchored by strong relationships and an active membership development plan.

Various attendance options are available for Rotarians and guests. Registration includes a link to make your reservations at the Embassy Suites in North Charleston, with overflow at adjacent Hilton Garden Inn and/or The DoubleTree.

START AND STOP TIMES

Check-in at the conference will start at 2:30 p.m. on Friday, with reception at 5:30-6:30 pm, to be followed by dinner and program. The conference continues through mid-day Sunday.

This year's conference is May 18-20 in North Charleston

A joint conference with D7680, the Charlotte area

Our conference starts Friday night, May 18, with dinner followed by remarks from Rotary International Director-Elect David Stovall from North Georgia.

Keynote speaker on Saturday evening will be Past Rotary International President John Germ. South Carolina Attorney General Alan Wilson will speak on Human Trafficking.

Saturday morning we will hear brief club presentations highlighting major achievements to demonstrate Rotary Making a Difference. Also, not to be missed is a presentation by Peter Chatel, leadership consultant and former Coca Cola executive, about leadership.

Free time will be available on Saturday afternoon. Tours are being arranged to places such as Magnolia Plantation, Charleston harbor cruise, Patriots Point, slave market, and others. The conference will end at noon on Sunday after interfaith and memorial services.

Plated dinners will be served on Friday/Saturday evenings and complimentary breakfasts are provided each morning at the Embassy Suites.

Entertainment on Friday night will be Charleston's "17 SOUTH Band," providing a wide repertoire of lively, familiar tunes for dancing.

Our AGs are working with club presidents to encourage sponsorships from individual clubs, as well as corporate sponsorships and sponsorships from members' businesses. AG Frank Cox and AG Rebecca Melton are co-chairing "Silent Auction," and all clubs are strongly encouraged to donate items to raise funds for CART.

Bob Schavey (803.280.4939 and/or schaveyllc@comporium.net) will be chairing our District's "House of Friendship" to showcase each of our club's accomplishments this year. If your club would like a space in the House of Friendship register at <https://goo.gl/forms/aDBSQHAdpieAZktz1>

Your attendance and active participation are key to help make the joint conference a success and one to be remembered. We envision all of us having a fun, interesting time for camaraderie with Rotarian friends old and new, as well as the opportunity to enjoy the southern charm and beauty of historic Charleston.

DG finds committed Rotarians all around district

By DG Ed Irick

As 2018 begins the second half of our Rotary year, this is a time for me to reflect on the past year.

I knew going into 2017 that it would be a busy one. As District Governor, there is a lot of time spent on the road, visiting and speaking to clubs, emailing, talking on the phone, and attending meetings.

What I didn't anticipate were the interesting and committed Rotarians I would meet who have inspired me more than words on a page could ever convey. I consider it such an honor and privilege to have become friends with so many hardworking and dedicated people from all over our District who are truly making a difference in not just our communities but also our world.

I am so proud to be a Rotarian and look forward to 2018 with the pride that comes from knowing that what we do does make a difference.

History is said to be the basis on which the future is built. As we look forward to the New Year, I am confident because I know we have a solid foundation of men and women in District 7750. I have visited you in your clubs, and I know that by working together as people of action, we will continue to inspire, transform, and connect to make a real difference in people's lives.

Carol and I wish you and your families a New Year full of peace, joy, love, laughter, blessings, and good health!

Thank you for all you do in the name of Rotary.

RI sends recognition awards for 2016-17

By DG Ed Irick

I recently received from Rotary International the official notification of the District's Rotary and Interact clubs that earned Presidential Citations and those earning RI Foundation and PolioPlus recognition in 2016-2017. If you are a member of one of these clubs, you should be proud in helping earn this recognition.

Due to their late arrival, I wanted to get the word out to you now. Your AGs will coordinate with your presidents for a time in the near future to officially and properly present these to your club.

Golden Strip Sunrise helps with painting—and music

The Golden Strip Sunrise Club recently returned to the Center for Community Services to provide additional painting labor to spruce up and maintain the buildings on campus.

Working with Assistant Director Catie Buckingham and center director Andrew Ross, the club is continuing to build a relationship with this center.

The club learned about the CCS earlier this year when Catie spoke about the mission and services of CCS at a weekly meeting.

The Center for Community Services (CCS) is a multiservice center offering easy access to human services and cultural and educational activities in Greenville County. It provides many direct services, including case management, orientation and referrals, and family programming for parents and their children.

ROTARY NIGHT OF SINGING

On November 14 The Golden Strip Sunrise Club and the Fountain Inn Club collaborated to sponsor a “Rotary Night of Singing” for the 20th time. This partnership of eight schools and two Rotary clubs showcases the singing talent of Golden Strip Schools while raising funds for scholarships. Once again it was a rousing success.

North Greenville club plants memorial tree at Sterling School

The Rotary Club of North Greenville has honored a fallen police officer and planted a tree to meet a goal of RI President Ian Riseley.

The police officer was Allen Jacobs, who was killed in Greenville in 2016. Allen was to have been a part of a camp for at-risk youths that summer. Instead, the camp took his name to become known as the Officer Allen Jacobs G.R.E.A.T. Summer Camp. G.R.E.A.T. is an acronym for Gang Resistance Education And Training.

Approximately 60 youths along with officers and volunteers participated in the first camp experience held at the Sterling School at Charles Townes Center. In 2017 the program continued to thrive with 55 participants and eight GREAT certified officers as part of the Community Response Team (CRT).

The Rotary Club of North Greenville supported the 2016 and 2017 G.R.E.A.T. summer camps as part the clubs' community foundation and fundraising efforts.

When president Ian asked that every Rotarian plant a tree this Rotary year, North Greenville Rotary partnered with Sterling School, TreesGreenville and Greenville Parks & Recreation in a multi-year commitment to not only plant trees, but continue to make a difference through community partnerships like the Officer Allen Jacobs G.R.E.A.T. Summer Camp.

The first tree—a memorial Chinese pastiche tree—was planted with children from the Sterling school on Dec. 15, 2017. Additional efforts will focus around the Bobby Pearse Center and Rotary Park of North Main, both of which were developed by the Rotary Club of North Greenville years ago. Such continuing or renewing partnerships show how Rotary contributes to making a difference in its local community and around the world.

The Golden Corner Rotary Club recently got an update on the CART program from club member Louis Holleman. CART—Coins for Alzheimer's Research Trust—has raised more than $5.2 million to fund research into curing and preventing Alzheimer's.

Heyward Douglass, left, retired Clemson University pilot and board member of the Foothills Trail Conservancy, updated the Golden Corner Rotary Club on the trail's latest improvements and upgrades. The trail runs more than 75 miles between Oconee State Park and Table Rock State Park in Pickens County. The trail also runs along Sassafras Mountain which will soon be home to a new viewing platform. Pictured with Heyward is Golden Corner Rotarian Vic Holley.

Rotary Action Groups give Rotarians way to help in worthwhile causes

By PDG Barbara Shayeb-Helou
D7750 Fellowships Chair

You can find me at the Toronto 2018 RI Convention at Booth 211 in the HOF. Please stop by to say 'Hello'. And come learn about joining the RI Action Group for Endangered Species. You will never regret saving the life of an elephant, rhino, lion or tiger from extinction. Also, the day following the convention we will take a special guided, behind the scenes tour of the Toronto Zoo. Feel like a VIP and join us.

The Rotary Action group for Population and Development is another group that I have given little attention to. RFPD is concerned that the world grows by 80 million each year. How to we feed and house them without careful planning. RFPD is also a resource for Maternal and Child health issues. They could be a great resource, if you are seeking a grant in that area.

The Rotary Action group for Addiction Prevention recognizes that this issue is global and no culture is immune. They bring their expertise together for study and the exchange of ideas.. Google RAG-AP.org

Rotarians Eliminating Malaria (remarag.org) attempts to do just that. They attempt to develop and promote worldwide cooperation on Malaria control. This is something we Americans tend to push aside and think it is less than important. But if you travel to the less developed world, you will not think that way.

Are you a Veteran? It doesn't matter which war you were in.

Rotary has a Fellowship of Military Veterans. For $10 a year, you can join. To join send payment to: International Fellowship of Rotary Military Veterans, 1620 Curlew Road, Dunedin, FL 34698.

If you or a Rotary friend is hearing challenged, please join Rotarians for Hearing: Action Group. www.ifrahl.org. This Action Group requires $10. per year, $25 for 3 years or $100 for life.

Payment can be sent to: Rotarians for Hearing RAG. 186 Creek Road, Pleasant Valley, NY 12569.

Everyone needs to hear and understand what goes on at a meeting.

This is only a small sample of what you can look forward to by joining Fellowships and RAGS.

Methods for contracting and detecting polio

By Amelia Nelson

D7750 Polio Chair

In 1988, the World Health Assembly resolved to eradicate polio-virus. Since then, polio incidence has decreased from an estimated 350,000 cases to 37 in 2016. A cornerstone of global eradication efforts and the primary means for detecting poliovirus transmission is acute flaccid paralysis (AFP) surveillance—clinical surveillance for persons with AFP, and subsequent testing for polioviruses in stool specimens. Now we are expanding into Environmental Surveillance.

ENVIRONMENTAL SURVEILLANCE

More than 99% of poliovirus infections are non-paralytic and therefore, not detected by AFP surveillance. Environmental surveillance (ES) can detect circulating polioviruses from sewage. With extensive ES and continued circulation of polioviruses, Pakistan presents a unique opportunity to quantify the impact of ES as a supplement to AFP surveillance on overall completeness and timeliness of poliovirus detection.

WHAT IS VACCINE-DERIVED POLIO?

Oral polio vaccine (OPV) contains a weakened vaccine-virus, activating an immune response in the body. When a child is immunized with OPV, the weakened vaccine-virus replicates in the intestine for a limited period, thereby developing immunity by building up antibodies. During this time, the vaccine-virus is also excreted. In areas of inadequate sanitation, this excreted vaccine-virus can spread in the immediate community (and this can offer protection to other children through 'passive' immunization), before eventually dying out.

On rare occasions, if a population is seriously under-immunized, an excreted vaccine-virus can continue to circulate for an extended period of time. The longer it is allowed to survive, the more genetic changes it undergoes. In very rare instances, the vaccine-virus can genetically change into a form that can paralyze—this is what is known as a circulating vaccine-derived poliovirus (cVDPV).

The small risk of cVDPVs pales in significance to the tremendous public health benefits associated with OPV. Every year, hundreds of thousands of cases due to wild polio virus are prevented. Well over 10 million cases have been averted since large-scale administration of OPV began 20 years ago.

Circulating VDPVs in the past have been rapidly stopped with 2–3 rounds of high-quality immunization campaigns. The solution is the same for all polio outbreaks: immunize every child several times with the oral vaccine to stop polio transmission, regardless of the origin of the virus.

COUNTRY UPDATES

Afghanistan

The most recent new case was reported Nov. 17. The total number of reported WPV1 cases in Afghanistan in 2017 is 12.

Pakistan

One new case was reported Nov. 15. The total number reported in Pakistan in 2017 is seven.

Nigeria

The most recent case was reported Aug. 21, 2016. No new cases have been reported in 2017.

Lake Chad Basin

The detection of the polio virus in Nigeria in 2016 continue to pose a risk to the neighbouring countries of the Lake Chad basin. Emergency outbreak response efforts continue across the Lake Chad basin, together with activities to fill subnational surveillance gaps across the region. These activities include efforts to vaccinate children at markets, in internally displaced persons camps, and at international borders.

Central Africa

Ten cases have been reported this year in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC), linked mostly to an outbreak in Haut Lomami province, where the onset of paralysis of the most recent case was July 27.

The Middle East

Four new cases of type 2 circulating vaccine-derived poliovirus (cVDPV2) have been reported. The total number of confirmed cVDPV2 cases is now 74.

We have only met 15% of our PolioPlus goal, so please consider making your contribution for Polio in the last half of the Rotary year 2017-18.

Year-end project benefits work in Haiti

By Sara Mansbach

Rotary Club of Pleasantburg

Rotarians and partners with our District 7750 Literacy Haiti project gathered or purchased numerous picture books, art supplies, and games for schools in rural villages in the Central Plateau of Haiti during the last two months of 2017. The container, shipped on December 13, will be unloaded in January at CFFL Community Vocational School facilities in Corporant, Haiti. Clubs within easy driving distance of downtown Greenville where the warehouse was located were asked to help with this drive. We also approached other ongoing Haiti Literacy partners who have supported us over the years. Then, over 5 days, together, in the spirit of the season, 22 volunteers cheerfully packed and lifted 135 boxes onto pallets.
