Foothills plants trees along popular trail

Continuing the emphasis from last year on planting trees, the Rotary Club of the Foothills recently planted 10 trees along the Swamp Rabbit Trail in Travelers Rest. The walking and biking trail stretches from south of Greenville to Travelers Rest. Included in the photo are Helena Travis, Rosemary Makulinski and Ruddy Davalos, three of 10 club members who were joined by Greenville County Arborists to plant the trees.

Youth Exchange committee asking for student applications

BY WADE CLEVELAND

D7750 Youth Exchange Chair
864-569-7296

The District Youth Exchange committee is now looking for students who would like to spend up to a year living and studying abroad.

We need American students who want to study abroad, learn a new language, gain insight into themselves and our country, make new friends, and promote peace as true citizens of the world.

We're looking for students, ages 15 to 19, who:

- Have demonstrated leadership in their school and community
- Are flexible and willing to try new things
- Are open to cultural differences
- Can serve as ambassadors for our country

If you know such a student, tell him or her about Rotary Youth Exchange and invite him/her to contact me directly for more information. Or, just have the student send me the preliminary application.

Help promote peace and international understanding through Rotary Youth Exchange!

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR...

Spend the month rocking the world with our Foundation

BY DG CAROL BURDETTE

November is the month we celebrate The Rotary Foundation.

In 1917 Arch Klumph announced to the Rotarians gathered at the International Convention in Atlanta... "we should have an endowment for doing good in the world."

More than 100 years later it is one of the most robust charities in the world, and it is the "gateway to doing good in the world"... focusing on peace and conflict prevention and resolution, disease prevention and treatment, water and sanitation, maternal and child health, basic education and literacy and economic and community development.

I never ask others to do what I haven't done, so I hope you will join me in giving to The Rotary Foundation in the form of a cash gift or a bequest!

Also, I hope you will join me as our district hosts Ron Burton, Past Rotary International President and Chairman of The Rotary Foundation on November 29 at Spartanburg Methodist College. He is coming to celebrate our district's giving and give us an update on the work of our foundation. You will not want to miss it so register today!!

As I told those present at my installation in May, I want our district to rock the Rotary world this year!

And I have determined how we do it...we make membership a priority and end the year with positive growth...not just for the numbers, but have you noticed how much work needs to be done in our communities and in the world?

We need good people to join our clubs to help us serve more people. So let's get busy sharing our Rotary story and asking others to join us.

In order to rock the Rotary world this year, let's break every Foundation giving record in our district with annual giving, polio, benefactors and bequests.

Let's rock the Rotary world by our branding. Let's wear our Rotary pins, shirts and hats... especially when doing service projects. Use social media, newspaper coverage and projects that show off the Rotary brand in your community.

Lastly, rocking the Rotary world means engaging the next generation of Rotarians. Starting new Interact and Rotaract clubs or involving our existing Interactors and Rotaractors in more of our club activities.

This all happens as a team effort...let's work together as clubs, assistant governors and district committee chairs to ROCK THE ROTARY WORLD!!!!!!

WORLD POLIO DAY—DG Carol, second row right, was among this group of Rotarians who gathered at the state Capitol in Columbia to recognize World Polio Day on Oct. 24.

World Polio Day 2018: Take Flight for Polio

BY JULIE TOVEY

D7750 Polio Chair

On October 24, Rotarians all over the world celebrated World Polio Day in many ways. Members across District 7750 participated in fundraisers designed to further our leadership in giving to eradicate polio. As a district, we recognize that it will take each of us to make this happen, and that we must seize the opportunity of being this close.

One of our District 7750 events was Take Flight for Polio at the Anderson Regional Airport. District Governor Carol Burdette and a group of committed supporters came together on a beautiful night to make a difference.

Carol and Rotarian Tim Self (Anderson) flew in to the event to symbolize our flight and fight against this disease. They were joined by Tim's daughter, Ramsey, who was a guest speaker. She represents the millions of children who have been vaccinated against polio, and those who still need to be protected.

Thanks to Anderson County for their support of this event and cause, to our sponsors, and to Tucker's Restaurant for their service and friendship. Thanks to all Rotarians who made a difference for Polio Plus on October 24, and for all you do.

DG Carol and Ramsey Self. Ramsey flew in with Carol and spoke at the event.

↑ DG Carol and Hamid Mohsseni. Rotarian Hamid flew Carol and guests into the event.

Anderson mayor Terrence Roberts presents Carol with a World Polio Day proclamation. →

Carol, Tim and Ramsey were joined by members from across the District for a great event that RAISED MORE THAN $1,800 TO SUPPORT POLIO PLUS.

Despite the emphasis on membership, more than half of the District's 52 clubs are experiencing either no change or a net loss of members.

MEMBERSHIP NOTES

BY IPDG ED IRICK

D7750 Membership Chair

864-420-1052 | dg2017@rotary7750.org

Have you ever considered what it would mean if your Rotary Club no longer existed? How would your community be affected? Over the years, communities have come to depend and rely upon Rotary clubs for community involvement. When a club begins to lose its effectiveness due to decreased membership, it impacts not only the club but, also the community.

You have heard it said that membership is the #1 priority in District 7750. Despite the emphasis on membership, currently over one half of the District's 52 clubs are experiencing either no change or a net loss of members since the beginning of the Rotary year. Do you know where your club now stands?

The problems with decreasing membership can be solved. There are intentional strategies that have been proven to work and have been used successfully by clubs in our District. They address each and every membership problem, except one, and that is lack of engagement by individual Rotarians.

Every Rotarian is a de facto member of his/her club's membership committee. It is incumbent on each and every one of us to play a role in keeping our clubs healthy and vibrant so that they continue to be a positive presence in our communities.

Right now your club should be planning for a District Membership Event Grant. Every member has a role to play in this. The success, even failure, to get maximum benefits from the grant falls on the shoulders of each member of the club. It might be as simple as inviting someone to the event or passing along a lead to another member.

Ask your membership chair and/or president what role you can play in membership. It is up to each Rotarian to stay engaged so that Rotary remains strong in our communities. Be the Inspiration in helping your club do this.

Admin and PI: Help your club be excellent

The administration of a club might not be the most exciting part of Rotary and it won't be a primary driver of membership. But a well-run club can very well make the difference between excellence and mediocrity.

The club's ability to promote itself, likewise, might not make all the difference in success or failure but it goes a long way toward helping your community understand your mission.

To help club members get a better grasp on these two important but sometimes overlooked aspects of Rotary, the district is sponsoring a training session on November 10 in Spartanburg.

Greenville Rotary to sponsor 2019 Peace Conference

BY JUDITH PRINCE

Rotary Club of Greenville

The Rotary Club of Greenville will present the 2019 Peace and Conflict Resolution Conference on Friday, May 3, 2019 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Greenville Convention Center (formerly TD Convention Center). The mission of the 2019 Peace Conference is to inspire people to resolve conflict in a peaceful and productive manner. As Rotarians, we refuse to accept unresolved conflict as a way of life.

Keynote speakers are highlighted below.

BAWA JAIN will open the conference with a presentation on “Is Peace Possible?” Bawa is Founding Secretary General of the World Council of Religious Leaders and is founder of the World Movement of Non-violence. He actively speaks, practices, and promotes Religious Diplomacy around the world as part of his broader thrust on Responsible Leadership.

AZIM KHAMISA’S son, Tariq, 20 was killed by a 14-year-old gang member in a gang initiation ritual. Since then, Azim has authored four books and speaks worldwide to students and adults on nonviolence, forgiveness and peace-building. Azim will speak on “Forgiveness as the Foundation of Peace” and on his journey to becoming a passionate peace activist and a teacher of nonviolence and forgiveness.

DAVID FORWARD will discuss his latest book A String of Pearls: Inspiring Stories of How Rotary Peace Fellows Are Serving Humanity and Saving the World. This book honors Peace Fellows by telling their stories. David says, “Like a pearl, which starts out as a minute grain of sand and over time develops through many crystalline layers into a precious jewel, our scholars are a force for good in the world that is rare, valuable, and prized. The Rotary Peace Fellows are a string of pearls.”

JESSICA SHRYACK will lead a session titled, “Living Room Conversations: An experimental session in civil discourse.” Jessica facilitates face-to-face conversations between people with differing views and experiences, especially around difficult topics. Skills participants will learn include active listening and using ground rules to set the stage for effective conversation. The goal of these conversations is to try to see other points of view by pushing through stereotypes and emotion while not getting so “triggered” that we lose the opportunity to engage others.

An INTERFAITH PANEL will feature representatives from Hinduism, Islam, Judaism, Catholicism, and Christianity religions. Although all religions have distinct belief systems, there are similarities and common goals of peace, love, and justice. The goal of the panel presentation is to inspire others to understand “we” are all in this world together and that harmony begins with each of us, regardless of our religious affiliation.

Captain D. F. PACE is an 18-year veteran of the Philadelphia Police Department. He is Commanding Officer of the Department’s

Police Board of Inquiry. D.F. spent three months at Chulalongkorn University in Thailand as a Rotary Peace Scholar where he earned a professional certificate in Peace and Conflict Studies. He will speak on how he took the lessons of the Rotary Peace Program to the streets of Philadelphia and how that training has influenced and been applied throughout his career in law enforcement.

VIKAS SRIVASTAVA will speak on “Transforming Violence.” He will offer ideas to transform the past into a non-violent future by redefining the essence of violence — including a strategy to end the cycle of violence while healing the past and preventing similar violence from reigniting.

Sponsorships are available. The planning committee asks that 99 Rotarians become Champions of Peace by making a $99 Pledge for Peace. There are five levels of investment in the 2019 Peace and Conflict Resolution Conference, and net proceeds from the conference will go toward funding a Rotary Peace Scholar.

Pleasantburg helps fund literacy project in Upstate

The Rotary Club of Pleasantburg presented a $1,930 check to Augustine Literacy Project of the Upstate. Pictured are club president Brian Thomas; Sharon Lynch, Alice Sobray, and Denise Ruby of Augustine Literacy; and president-elect Larry Lee. The funds will be used to purchase books for use by professionally trained, in-school volunteer tutors. Augustine Literacy serves low income first, second, and third graders in Upstate South Carolina who are at least one grade level behind their fellow students in reading, writing, and spelling. For more information and ideas how Rotary District 7750 can enhance youth literacy, refer to <http://augustineproject-upstatesc.org/>.

Greenville Evening changes its name

The Rotary Club of Greenville Evening is now the Rotary Club of the Reedy River Greenville.

Since its inception, The Rotary Club of Greenville Evening has shared most of its name with their parent club, The Rotary Club of Greenville. "We have often found ourselves explaining to friends, co-workers, community members, and even the media that our name was the Rotary Club of Greenville Evening," said Jessica St. Clair Smith, current club President. "We were borne out of the Greenville club but we are not the Greenville club. We have our own unique identity," Jessica said.

This year will be the 15th year of the Reedy River Duck Derby, the club's signature event held at Falls Park in downtown Greenville. The club unanimously decided it was time to claim their own identity with the name change. They meet downtown near the Reedy River. Their biggest fundraiser and event of the year takes place on the Reedy River. The Duck Derby had its greatest year ever in 2018.

Look for the club on Facebook at: <https://www.facebook.com/ReedyRiverRotary/>

The club meets on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday's of each month at the Commerce Club in downtown Greenville from 5:30 – 7:00.

GOLDEN CORNER ROTARIANS RIDE THE BUS; HOPE TO OFFER RECOMMENDATIONS

Members of the Golden Corner Rotary Club recently rode the Clemson Area Transit's Seneca route. The 45-minute CAT-Seneca route included residential, health and business stops. The club hopes to present ideas and recommendations to CAT officials for improving the mass transit experience. Golden Corner Rotarians on the bus included, from left, club president Steve Rushton, Gene Williams and his wife Ernestine, Jon Adams, Wayne Frady, Assistant Governor. Frank Cox of Clemson-Calhoun Doug Wilson, Eddie Perry and Pam Dowd.

George Bakogiannis, left, was recently presented with the Golden Corner Rotary Club's first corporate-small business membership. The membership in the club recognizes a corporation or small business for its continued support of Rotary's community outreach programs. Pictured with Bakogiannis are Golden Corner Rotary Club president Steve Rushton and Rotarian Eddie Perry, right.

THE PERILS OF SMART PHONES!

Louie Holleman with the School District of Oconee County and a Golden Corner Rotarian recently discussed the importance of avoiding prolonged use of social media. Louie, the Seneca High School golf team coach, noted that what once was a tobacco tin ring on the back pocket of male high school students is now a front pocket square because students cannot go anywhere without their smart phones.

Lance Cpl. Joe Hovis, Community Relations Officer for the South Carolina Highway Patrol's Troop 3, spoke to the Golden Corner Rotary Club about the leading causes of deaths from traffic accidents. Driving while distracted, driving while not wearing a seatbelt and driving while impaired by alcohol cause the most deaths in South Carolina. Distracted driving can be anything from adjusting the radio to eating to using a cell phone, particularly receiving and sending text messages. Pictured with Joe is Rotarian Neal Nimmons.

Holiday gift idea: A Rotary license plate

BY STEVE SOKOL

D7750 License Plate Chair

It is time to think about holiday gifts for Rotary friends and for suggestions to family to give to you. You would lose the element of surprise, but I have a suggestion to give your Rotary friends or to suggest to your family to give you. Consider a Rotary South Carolina license plate.

The extra expense to get the plate is $50 in addition to your registration fee. The receipt of the plate starts a new registration cycle which so you will owe a small amount to extend the registration period out to the full term.

To obtain the plate, you must download a form from SC DVM at <http://www.scdmvonline.com/DMVNew/forms/MV-95.doc>. The form is very straight forward. Once it is completed, you take the form to your local and pay the $50 and whatever extension charge is due on your vehicle's registration.

Once you get your tag you will need to notify the District of the new plate so we can verify the transfer of funds from the State to the District and proper application of the funds. We are working on documentation of this process at the moment, but for now, you just have to let us know.

There is more detailed instruction at <http://rotary7750.org/document/rotary-license-plates> and any questions may be addressed to plates@rotary7750.org.

rotary7750.org/document/rotary-license-plates

Questions to: plates@rotary7750.org

The benefit of the Rotary plate is multiple. You are able to display your pride in your Rotary membership and being part of the services provided by our organization.

You will be marked as part of a premier civic service organization. Several years ago, Rotary leadership identified a weakness in Rotary's "recognition." That resulted in changes to our visual identification and has increased the effort for more visibility. Thus, the importance of things like the license plates are figuring into the long-range plans.

Fifty dollars may not sound like much, but if you consider if one in ten Rotarians would spring for it, we are talking significant money for our projects

We are reviewing several ideas for increasing the excitement of the sale of plates and would welcome your assistance on the plate committee. If interested, please drop a short note to Plates@rotary7750.org. and I will get right back to you. We will be revising the whole process in addition to keeping it fun. Remember what the center of RotaryFUNctions is

If you are looking for a gift that is a bit more significant, I would suggest a Paul Harris Fellowship. I gifted both my wife and then my daughter over the years. I was very pleased to note my wife wearing hers at this years Governor installation and my daughter has mentioned significant clients commenting that she has one. Your club Foundation Chair can assist you or contact Rita Yarbrough, the District PHF Chair.

Deadline for December newsletter is Nov. 25.

Even if you don't surf, you might enjoy this new Fellowship

BY BARBARA SHAYEB-HELOU

7750 Chair, Fellowships and Action Groups

The SURFERS UNITE ROTARIANS FELLOWSHIP (SURF) is highlighted in the November issue of The Rotarian, page 14. This is a relatively new fellowship with 450 members in 20 countries. Opportunities for surfing and membership span the globe. If surfing interests you, you need to join.

A friend several years ago joined the Fellowship of Yachting Rotarians. I knew that he didn't own a yacht, so I inquired. He responded that he enjoyed meeting the people that did own yachts. So if you enjoy meeting people that surf, consider membership.

The ROTARY ACTION GROUP AGAINST SLAVERY (RAGAS) in its recent news letter cautions us that although laws permitting slavery have been repealed everywhere, people globally continue to be brutalized and ignored. Exploitation continues along with the threat of violence continuing people to submit to slavery. Statistics show us that in 2016 there were 40 million people enslaved globally. One in every four were children. Approximately each hour 300 humans are being submitted in some way to slavery.

The ROTARY WINE APPRECIATION FELLOWSHIP (RWAFF) recent newsletter tells us that they plan to publish 8 newsletters each year from now on. At the 2018 Rotary International Convention in Toronto, I attended both of their dinners. The venues were excellent. The choice of food delicious and the wines and fellowship were unmatched.

They plan a wine tour of "Rhine" Country while at the Hamburg International Convention. Later on they plan a tour of Croatia to study their wines.

At the RI Hamburg Convention they again plan a general membership wine dinner and a dinner for lifetime members. They state that any excess funds are donated to Rotary projects. Examples of this are in Global and Matching grants in Portugal, Ghana, Armenia, Botswana, Brazil and India.

JUNE 1, 2019 OR SOONER – ANNOUNCEMENT OF DISTRICT GRANTS ALLOCATION

Club Officer & Director Elections

BY TERRY WEAVER

District Trainer, D-7750

It's time to kick off the election process for club officers and directors for the coming Rotary year (beginning July 1). Your club bylaws require that a least four officers plus directors for the coming year be elected no later than December 31. Those officers are president, president-elect (to follow the elected president), secretary and treasurer. Excerpts from the relevant section of the Standard Club Bylaws are at the end of this article.

Start right away - you need time to assemble a nominating committee, confirm with possible nominees their willingness to serve, present a slate of candidates at a meeting and publish the slate in a bulletin -- all at least one month before the election at a meeting (in December).

An effective Rotary club has its president line in place for at least 2 years in the future, so it's important to not only elect a president for the coming year, but also a president-elect.

An effective Rotary club also has a Board rotation/replacement process in place. Depending on Board terms (2 or 3 years), some number of seats need to be replaced every year. A Board position is a good way to get an emerging leader up to speed on the workings of the club.

The president, immediate past president, president-elect, secretary, and treasurer are automatically members of the Board.

IMPORTANT: The nomination process, securing commitments from those nominated and the election process are all responsibilities of the Board of Directors -- it's not the incoming president's responsibility to fill any of these positions. The president is responsible only for securing committee chairs.

By the way, if your club's bylaws have not been updated since 2016, they should be, as they're out of date. The 2016 Council on Legislation enacted several provisions that would require an update.

EXCERPTS FROM RECOMMENDED ROTARY CLUB BYLAWS:

Article 2 Board

The governing body of this club is its board of directors, consisting of, at a minimum, the president, immediate past president, president-elect, secretary, and treasurer.

Article 3 Elections and Terms of Office

Section 1 — One month before elections, members nominate candidates for president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and any open director positions. The nominations may be presented by a nominating committee, by members from the floor, or both.

Article 5 Meetings

Section 1 — An annual meeting of this club is held no later than 31 December to elect the officers and directors who will serve for the next Rotary year.
