The strangest Rotary year on record coming to an end

BY DG BETH PADGETT

We've almost made it through the strangest Rotary year on record. Covid-19 has disrupted our lives, and it also brought many changes to our Rotary Clubs.

Can you believe that some Rotary Clubs have just had their first or second in-person meeting of this year? Last month, I was at a few of those meetings, and it is a beautiful experience to see Rotarians meeting each other after more than a year of virtual experiences.

Rotarians like each other. They see their club members as friends ... and even family. That's one point I've taken away from this year. Rotarians want to be around other Rotarians, and the forced separation has been hard.

It's been a difficult year to run a Rotary Club. Most clubs in our District lost their meeting venues, at least temporarily, after Covid hit. Some clubs found a new place to meet, but lost that place, too. Churches and colleges and community rooms in banks have long provided meeting places for many clubs. Those options disappeared, at least temporarily, because of Covid restrictions.

—the strange year

Zoom has been a blessing for presidents trying to keep their clubs going. But Zoom has its limitations. It's tough to conduct a Zoom meeting in some of the more rural parts of our District because of the lack of broadband. That is a real problem!

Despite the challenges, Rotarians have found ways to continue "doing Rotary." Many clubs have brought in new members. Clubs have found new ways to stay in touch.

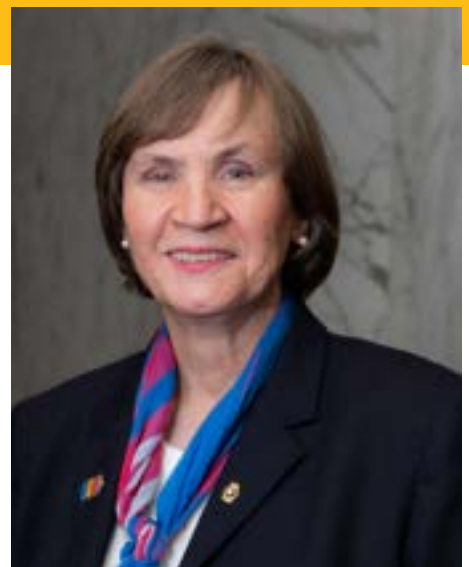

Most importantly, robust service in our communities and the world has continued in grand ways. Clubs have fed the hungry at home and in other countries. There have been blood drives and book collections. In several areas, the most disadvantaged schools are reaping the rewards of Rotary involvement. Some longtime projects simply could not be done this year because of Covid-related restrictions. Regardless, Rotarians have found ways to help others and make a difference.

Covid has hurt us in deeply personal ways, too. Many clubs have lost a member or two to the coronavirus. Several club presidents got the disease and were out for weeks.

Yes, Covid-19 has been tough on Rotary Clubs, but Rotarians in District 7750 rose to the challenge. Throughout our District, clubs have continued to serve others and do good in the world. That's worth celebrating!

As I head to the finish line, I want to thank you for allowing me to serve as your District Governor this year. I have met many great people and made so many new friends. I am excited about the possibilities that await Frank Cox as he takes over as District Governor in July.

The finish line is in sight for this Rotary year. Let's finish strong!

3 Ways to Keep Carol from Jumping

- Do not terminate a member without talking to them about their situation
- Leave No Rotarian Behind 3.0
Rotary District 7750 will provide Rotary International dues (1st half) and District dues for members affected by COVID-19

disasters worldwide

DISASTERS

When disaster strikes, people want to help. That's a natural instinct and it's particularly strong among Rotarians. After all, we are people of action, and we are committed to serving others and doing good in the world.

Sometimes it's not apparent that District 7750 Rotarians have been part of disaster relief efforts because we make our contributions long after the news has moved on to a new hot topic. There are times, too, when we fail to share what we have done to help others recover after nature or disease has been particularly cruel.

Let's take a look at some of the global disaster relief efforts that have taken place in the past year or so.

Lingering effects of Dorian

In late summer 2019, Hurricane Dorian moved through the Bahamas with power previously unseen. The Category 5 Atlantic hurricane was the most intense on record for the area. Even worse, it remained stationary for a day, and that increased the devastation in the area. Rotarians were among the millions of people who made donations to help people who needed food, water, and shelter.

More than a year later, needs still exist in the Bahamas. Just a few months ago, our District contributed to the Abaco School Restoration Project that is rebuilding and supplying 14 government schools on Abaco Island. The powerful plea for assistance came from Past Rotary International President Barry Rassin, who lives in the region. Rotarians are eager to pool their resources when asked, and there was a need for funds in Zones 33-34 (western Pennsylvania to the coast of South America) to help with matching funds needed to get the children in Abaco back to school.

St. Vincent volcano eruption

Less than two months ago, a volcano erupted on the island of St. Vincent. District 7030 Governor Lisle Chase of St. Lucia waited a few days to reach out to his Zone 33-34 classmates for help because he wanted to assess the needs in the neighboring island. He asked for funds for food, PPE and cots. He wanted money, not goods, shipped to the island. As he explained, the funds help put money in the local economy while also meeting basic needs. District 7750 made a donation for the relief efforts in St. Vincent.

Portable ventilators in India

Within weeks of that donation to help people in St. Vincent, Zone 33 Regional Rotary Foundation Coordinator Nancy Barbee asked our District to join others in Zones 33, 34, 28 and 32 to assist with Covid-relief efforts in India by providing portable ventilators (concentrators). India

Disaster relief efforts—

← has been hit hard by a second Covid wave and the death toll is shocking. The portable concentrators offer the hope of life in India, and District 7750 eagerly contributed to this effort.

High flow oxygenators in Honduras

Shortly after this new Rotary year began, District 7750 participated in a Global Grant to purchase 15 high flow oxygenators to address the treatment of individuals demonstrating the most severe consequences of Covid-19 in Western Honduras. The units will be in the main hospital in Western Honduras, the Hospital de Occidente, owned by the Honduran Ministry of Health. The grant also provided funds to purchase a portable pulmonary ultrasound unit to be used in the early detection of pulmonary lesions. Funds also were included to train the physicians, nursing staff, and the respiratory therapists of the hospital on Covid 19 triage and the use of the high flow oxygenators.

Food bags in Guatemala City

Covid-19 not only has created a medical crisis, but the global pandemic also has destroyed the economic livelihoods of many people. With Area 8 (Aiken, Aiken Sunrise, Batesburg-Leesville and North Augusta Rotary Clubs) leading the way, relief has been brought to people around the landfill in Zone 3 in Guatemala City. Area 8 raised most of the funds to provide food bags for 102 families in August and 136 families in November. The families already faced challenging living conditions, and their lives were made more difficult when the global pandemic hit. The families had been making a living by recycling items from the landfill, and their ability to provide for themselves was disrupted by the pandemic and government restrictions. Aiken Sunrise made an initial gift, the Area 8 clubs denoted most generously, and District 7750 and a Rotary Club in Guatemala made other contributions to this effort.

Hurricane recovery in Honduras

The E-Club of the Carolinas also assisted with hurricane recovery in Honduras after this part of Central America was slammed by Hurricanes Eta and Iota that hit just two weeks apart. Past District Governor Lance Young wrote about this emergency outreach in the January newsletter.

Lives being changed

Each year, Rotarians in District 7750 are assisting people throughout the world who are suffering because of a natural disaster or more recently a global pandemic. It would be difficult to catalogue all the good works because some never get recognition beyond the club level. What is most important is that lives are being changed because of the efforts of you and so many other Rotarians in our District.

Finish strong with your year-end gifts to TRF

BY PDG LORRAINE ANGELINO

D7750 Foundation Chair

Many of the disasters that we help with are funded at least partially through your gifts to the Rotary Foundation.

Thank you to everyone that has contributed to our Foundation this year.

Thank you for those that participated in the Governor Challenge. We had more than 1,000 contributions in the month from April 15 – May 15 and over 80,000 points will be distributed.

Wow, what a successful challenge!

We need to “Finish Strong” and make sure all contributions get in before the deadline on June 30. If you are not sure what the deadlines are, look at the document at the end of this newsletter.

Three important deadlines:

1. Online contributions via Rotary.org need to be made by midnight on June 30th CST.
2. Via Phone at 1-866-976-8279 contributions will be accepted through 5:00PM CST on June 30.

3. For checks being sent in both the postmark on the envelope and the date written on the check must be no later than June 30 and processed by the back no later than July 7. Send checks and completed contribution forms to: The Rotary Foundation, 14280 Collections Center Drive, Chicago, IL 60693.

Club Treasurers please work with your Foundation chairs to get the final contributions in before the deadline. Consider making the contribution online. Let's Finish strong! I am hoping we can hit a minimum of $450,000 for Annual Fund – SHARE and $150,000 for Polio.

Join your friends at the All Club Conference

Haven't registered yet for the 2021 All Club Conference? What are you waiting for? Don't miss this opportunity to have fun with so many of your fellow Rotarians at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in downtown Greenville.

WHY SHOULD YOU JOIN US FOR THE CONFERENCE?

1 You will have fun! You probably haven't seen many of your Rotary friends in almost two years. This is an opportunity to enjoy their fellowship in the heart of downtown Greenville.

2 You probably will never be able to get a room at this low price again in downtown Greenville. The $169 (plus tax) per night rate for the Hyatt was negotiated a couple of years ago, and it was low then. Today, fully vaccinated people are racing to get out and make up for more spending more than a year shut in at home. Just as a comparison, today's discounted rate (such as AAA) for the June 25-27 weekend at the Hyatt is $234. Get your room now! We must turn in any unsold rooms after June 4.

3 A wonderful day of training is being offered on Friday, June 25, before the Conference opens. There is Training for Club Secretaries, Treasurers, Public Image/PR Chairs and DACdb Users. The training is free if you opted for Full Registration for the Conference. If you can't attend the rest of the weekend, the training is a manageable $15.

4 The $180 registration fee covers the Friday night party, the Saturday morning and lunch program, the Saturday night Awards and Installation Celebration, and the Sunday morning memorial service and program on Alzheimer's caregivers.

5 Can't make the full Conference? No problem! You can purchase individual events.

6 The Saturday program will be outstanding. You will leave inspired and motivated, and you can take some good ideas back to your home club.

REGISTER TODAY FOR THE 2021 ALL CLUB CONFERENCE! I LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU IN GREENVILLE AT THE END OF THIS MONTH.—BETH

Membership: Meet them where they are

“Meeting people where they are is about giving others what they need, when they need it.” — Tom Epperson

BY ANDY VANHOOK

Zone 33 Assistant Rotary Coordinator

You’re reading this newsletter because you care about Rotary’s growth. You know our membership number has hovered around 1.2 million people for decades. You know we need more Rotarians to increase our impact.

But it isn’t about the numbers.

As another Rotary year comes to an end, it is the time to fall into step and march out our traditional district membership growth plans. We promote a District-wide challenge to increase numbers and instruct membership chairs to “Grow Rotary.” Essentially, we create sales quotas for Clubs.

But it isn’t about the numbers.

The higher leaders rise in any organization, the more often we risk losing sight of what is happening on the front lines. We forget that our membership roster is broken down by Clubs, then further into individual names. Do we know these people who are serving our mission on the front lines? What are their goals? What do they want from Rotary? What do they hope to achieve?

It isn’t about the numbers; and it shouldn’t be. Because it is about them.

I’d bet there are very few Rotarians who care if Rotary membership increases from 1.2 million to 1.3 million. I’d also bet many club leaders would prefer to have a smaller group of more dedicated Rotarians than just a deeper roster with more casual members.

We know how Innovative Clubs can help them grow, but if they aren’t ready or it isn’t their goal, it may have the opposite effect we are hoping for and encounter even more resistance to change.

Innovative ideas draw a mixed bag - A few clubs may be ready to dive right in. Others may need to dip a toe in and test the water. Still others won’t even look at the water.

The leadership intent should be to facilitate simple movement from one step to the next.

How?

First, we need to meet the clubs where they are. This means communicating with the clubs individually, understanding their goals and challenges, and then bolster them to choose their own way.

Proposed changes should always be about the needs of the individual Club. Change doesn’t have to come at the cost of what dedicated Rotarians have come to know and love about their club.

For some clubs it may be creating multiple satellite clubs.

For others it may be as simple as offering a new membership type without meals cost.

Getting that club to offer a new membership type needs to be recognized and celebrated because they have taken a step outside of their comfort zone, which took a lot of hard work. Give them credit for success because they have done something brand new.

As membership advocates, we all want to see Rotary grow in members and impact with new satellite clubs or cause-based clubs. However, our priorities are not everyone else’s. It is up to the clubs to determine what is best for them.

To truly help Rotary grow, we must meet Clubs where they are.

Greer Satellite club takes off

The new Rotary Satellite Club of Greer (a satellite of Mauldin) has achieved liftoff and already has a new member, Anna Ryan of the Haro Group of Keller Williams. We meet the first and third Tuesdays of each month from 5:30 to 6:30 pm at Blue Ridge Brewing, 308 Trade Street in Greer.

If you know anyone who may be interested in Rotary in the Greer area, please contact Jim Mitchell, Satellite Club Chair, at 864-421-3817 or GreerRotary@gmail.com.

Anna Ryan, new member
Jim Mitchell, Greer Satellite Chair

Getting to know you: Emilio Porras, Mauldin President; Wilfredo Leon, Mauldin Secretary; Anna Ryan, Greer satellite new member; Kate Mitchell; Larry Lee, Pleasantburg Rotary.

Highlights of four notable—and reproducible—District Rotary Literacy club activities in 2020-21

REPORTED BY SARA C. MANSBACH

District Literacy Chair

Despite a year full of setbacks for reading directly to children, the literacy committees of these four District 7750 Clubs put on their thinking caps and decided to implement or explore new ways of approaching the important task of getting books to children, especially those from communities where books were scarce.

ROTARY CLUB OF	LITERACY PROGRAMS, PROJECTS, ACTIVITIES, OR EVENTS
Laurens	Laurens continued its tradition of donating a book to a school signed by the speaker of the day at the club meeting. It's already planning to do Rotary Readers next year. Additionally, the club is considering budgeting funds to support Reach Out and Read , a strong, well-organized, national literacy medical outreach effort that Laurens County First Steps is developing.
Clemson Sunrise	READERS ARE LEADERS! The Clemson Sunrise Rotary Club raised $12,318 and distributed 4,278 books on diversity [see WNDB for suggestions]. The books were distributed to 1,307 children in 3 counties, Pickens, Oconee and Anderson. This included six elementary school third grade classrooms, two community centers, four churches, United Way of Pickens, and multiple child care centers.
Emerald City	Dolly Parton Imagination Library is dedicated to inspiring a love of reading by gifting books free of charge to children from birth to age five, through funding shared by Dolly Parton and local community partners. So far, we have distributed more than 26,500 books to Greenwood children under age 5, and 1,125 children are currently enrolled. Parents tell us that receiving a book in the mail addressed specifically to the child creates excitement and pride of ownership that is different from borrowing books from the library or having the child attend a program aimed at improving literacy.
Fort Mill	In partnership with the Fort Mill School District and Joshua Collingsworth Foundation , Fort Mill Rotary provided a Josh the Otter book and coloring book to every first grader across the Fort Mill School District. It also had the Josh the Otter character visit the first-grade classes across the district to help build excitement around literacy. In addition to providing books, it held a virtual community conversation around literacy on May 25. The conversation included a summary on the Rotary Club of Fort Mill Literacy values and goals, with a representative from the Fort Mill School District reading programs who joined us to share how important literacy is and how they are helping students achieve success.

Anderson club had successful year teaming up with elementary school

This year, the Rotary Club of Anderson and the United Way of Anderson County teamed up to sponsor and “adopt” Homeland Park Primary School. Signage was installed on campus to symbolize these two organizations’ commitment to this school community, and this special, continued partnership. Earlier in the year the club adopted HPPS to provide any immediate needs they have through the year.

Vaccines in Aiken—Assistant governor Rysheeka Bush, Rotary Club of Aiken Sunrise, volunteered with the Aiken Regional Medical Center for a vaccination clinic. She is just one of many Rotarians in our district who have helped in their communities with vaccinations.

New member in Fountain Inn—

The Rotary Club of Fountain Inn welcomed Russell Slatton to the club in May. Russ will be the new director of the Department of Public Works beginning in July. He’s shown with club president Shawn Bell.

Lake Wylie President Anne Violanti welcomes a new member, Ritchie Russell.

Well the summer is busting out and we deserve a summer of pretty flowers, fresh vegetables and warmth. Just remember the summer is never a time to forget Rotary.

Wherever you may go, a Rotary meeting can always be found.

This is a great time to connect with and check out the RAG for Food, Plant solutions. Malnutrition affects millions worldwide. With the coronavirus affecting millions; we need to help them learn the importance of proper nutrition. This can be achieved by helping a low income neighborhood to develop a Victory Garden; just a "plain ole" vegetable garden can change their life style and food choice selections into a healthy way of living. Once they get into the habit, it usually lasts.

There is a new RAG for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion. I won't dwell on this. Google them to check it out and ask yourself, if your Club reflects the diversity and inclusion of your community. There may be work to do.

A healthy Rotary Club reflects a healthy community. Does your club reflect and mirror your community? The answer. will tell you what to do.

The RAG for Family Safety has sponsored several webinars titled. 'infinite Possibilities.' They can be found on the RI website. Check them out. You will be pleased that you did. Learn about the challenge a RIVP had to be accepted by a club and meet the first female Rotary member.

In the writings of our founder Paul Harris in the early part of the 1900s, we see how important Peace was to him. He was in search for WORLD PEACE. Harris thought that the inter-exchange of Rotarians from country to country could develop into a World Peace Movement. Evidently we need to work harder on this.

Golden Corner organizes hygiene kits

The Golden Corner Rotary Club recently put together hygiene kits for Our Daily Rest shelter and Our Daily Bread soup kitchen. Working on the kits at Seneca Family Restaurant are from left club president Gene Williams, and Rotarians Doug Wilson, Steve Rushton, Pam Dowd, Lorraine Harding and Cammie Kaiser.

Golden Corner Rotary Club president Gene Williams, left, presented Vic Holley with his Paul Harris Fellow pin. Vic is the club's Foundation chairman.

Golden Corner Rotarian Don Estep with the firm Stancil, Cooley, Estep, and Stanley CPA, celebrated the end of tax season with humorous stories and quotes at the club recently.

Steve Harvey, associate superintendent with the School District of Oconee County, updated the Golden Corner Rotary Club on construction of the new Seneca Middle School. The district is currently working with Duke Power and the state DOT about power and road access. Pictured from left are club president Gene Williams, Harvey and Rotarian Pam Dowd.

Lorraine's tenure as Foundation chair is over! Who's next?

This will be my last month as your District Rotary Foundation Chair, a position I have held for six years.

I am pleased to introduce the person who will be taking my place for the next three years. She is well known to most of you. The next District Rotary Foundation Chair is soon to be PDG Beth Padgett.

I look forward to working with Beth as I move on as Zone 33 Regional Rotary Foundation Coordinator.

Foundation awards will be given at District Conference

Are you registered for the District Conference? On Saturday night we will be giving out some Foundation awards. If you became a Major Donor or next level or a Bequest Society member or next level and you are coming to the Conference, we would like to present you with your crystal and/or pin. If you are close, consider making an extra contribution and you too can be honored on Saturday night. Any questions, call Lorraine at 864-554-0598.
